Providing NHS services

As your local community pharmacy, we can offer a wide range of services and facilities for you and your family. We dispense both NHS and private prescriptions, plus you can talk in confidence to a trained member of staff at any time.

Patient Medication Records

Our computer allows us to keep records of all your prescriptions dispensed by us. This helps us check for possible problems, such as reactions between medicines and will help us deal with any queries you may have.

Information recorded

Our pharmacy team will provide you with the highest quality of healthcare. To do this, they need to keep records about you, your health and the care we have provided or plan to provide to you.

Information we may record includes:

- Basic details about you, such as address, date of birth, next of kin
- Records of medicines you have been prescribed by your doctor or another qualified prescriber, and which have been supplied by this pharmacy
- Details of medicines purchased from the pharmacy without a prescription (over the counter medicines)
- Other details and notes about your health and medical treatment
- Information relevant to your continued care from other people who care for you and know you well, such as other health professionals and relatives
- Details of drugs and appliances dispensed against NHS prescriptions as well as significant advice given and referrals made to other health professionals

This information won't be shared with anyone else except under the circumstances described opposite, in 'Sharing information'.

Sharing information

The information held about you will not be shared for any reason, unless:

- You ask us to do so
- We ask and you give us specific permission
- We are required by law.
For example, prescribers must be notified where a patient presents a repeat prescription and the pharmacist becomes aware of clinically significant issues arising in connection with that prescription
- We are permitted by law.
For example, where public interest overrides the need to keep the information confidential

The types of people we may ask you for permission to share information with include your doctors (GP and hospital) and other health professionals, such as nurses.

Your rights

You have the right to confidentiality under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR, Data Protection Act 2018, the Human Rights Act 1998 and the common law duty of confidence (the Disability Discrimination and the Race Relations acts may also apply).

We also comply with the NHS Code of Practice on Confidentiality and have a requirement under the professional Code of Ethics to keep records about you confidential, secure and accurate.

Viewing your health record

You have the right to ask for a copy of all records about you that we hold, free of charge. Your request may be made verbally or in writing – you may need to provide ID e.g. a passport or driving licence.

We will respond to your request within 30 days. If you think that any information we hold on you is inaccurate or incorrect, please let us know.
